Strange Traffic in Railroad Tickets.

ARREST OF WELL-KNOWN PERSONS CHARGED WITH SERIOUS OFFENCES.

On Saturday morning C. H. Motley, who newspapers on the trains of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, was arrested by Detectives Knox and Wren, charged with baving in his possession and offering for sale stolen passenger-tickets of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company. Upon being arrested Mr. Motley represented that the tickets in question were purchased by him of J. H. northeast corner of Main and Eighteenth streets." He accordingly made complaint before Justice R. H. Atlen that Mr. Childrey "did unlawfully and feloniously have in his possession about $70 worth of tickets of the said company, knowing the same to be stolen;" and upon this Mr. Childrey was also arrested. Mr. Childrey asserted that he had purchased the tickets from Master Henry T. Tyler, who is employed as messenger in the telegraph office here of the railroad company, and he at once had Tyler arrested, charged with "unlawfully taking and stealing and carrying away one lot of tickets WANTED. AS BOARDERS, TWO of the value of about $70, the property of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Com-

Mr. Childrey denies the most of Mr. Motley's statement, and alleges that he bought several lots of old cancelled tickets from the gentleman referred to, Messrs. Knox ber of among the cancelled ones, and passed into the hands of Motley, who was frequently about his store. When arrested Mr. Childrey delivered up a drawer containing probably 2,000 or 3,000 cancelled tickets of the Chesapeake and Obio Railroad Company. These came into his hands through young Tiler, who told him that he was authorized to sell them-that they were given to him. The tickets in the possession of Motley (the uncancelled ones) and those found at Mr. Childrey's store (cancelled ones) were sold to and from various staions along the line of the road, and were nearly all issued within the can well be. When arrested he was per- ing is a list of the conveyances of real estate FOR RENT, FRAME HOUSE No. The line of the road, and the line of the ro ine and had been once used, but not cancelled. It is the habit of conductors when they make their first round through the cars holes through each of them. On their second round the tickets are taken up, and, with the memorandum of the trip, are forwarded to the office of the company here. They are reëxamined at the office, and then packed away to be destroyed. It appears that notwithstanding the examinations made by the conductors and officers, tickets uncancelled were sometimes put away with cancelled ones.

Mr. Motley some time ago told one of the officers of the railroad company that he was selling these tickets, and from this information the case was investigated and the arrests resulted.

From information in the hands of the detectives Mr. J. C. Stocking, formerly of the Southern Express company, but now employed in a clerical capacity at the depôt, was also arrested, charged with having in his possession tickets of the same character. A search of his desk was made and about $65 worth of tickets were therein found. All not finally concluded. but one of them had been used, though they had not been cancelled.

THEFT OF COFFEE-BURGLARY .- About 4 o'clock on Friday morning Mr. Emmett dow of his house, at the foot of Poor-house Hill, saw a negro man, with a large bag on the house. Peroe then turned to call a negro man who lived near there, and as he did so the negro threw a rock at him, which struck and split his gun-stock, and, glancing, came FOR RENT-BRICK DWELLING, No. 410 heavily against his breast. committed. Lucy Harris (negro), guilty of stealing lot of clothing from Grace Fisher, was sent to jail for sixty days. Annie Walker, a drunken vagrant, was committed for thirty days.

PERSONAL.-Governor Kemper went to Old Point Saturday. He will return to-day Superintendent James H. Binford returned to the city Saturday from Tappahannock, where he attended a meeting of teachers of that section of the country. State Senator Smith, from Nelson county, reached the city on Saturday afternoon. ELECTION OF OFFICERS .- At the last regular meeting of Concordia Encampment, No. 30, I. O. O. F., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: William Goetze, C. P.; F. Dusch, H. P.; W. Jacob, S. W.; A. Krezmarz, Scribe; H. Metzger, Treasurer; F. W. Thomas, J. W.

VIOLATION OF THE CITY ORDINANCES .-There were several parties before Justice White Saturday morning for violating the city ordinances in different ways. They were all fined. One person was ordered to 'remove" his dog within twenty-four hours.

THE WEATHER .- There was a delightful change in the weather on Saturday evening. It had been intensely warm for two or three days previous, but on Saturday the weather predictions proved to be correct. We not only had a shower in the morning, but in the afternoon a slight thunder-storm visited this section, accompanied by a refreshing rain, with a fall in the mercury of nine degrees. At 1 o'clock yesterday morring it was still raining steadily.

RANGE OF THERMOMETER in the Dispatch counting-room Saturday, July 11th: 6 P. M. 3 P. M.

STATE TREASURY .- The balance in the State Treasury Saturday was $387,500.19.

A Suggestion Concerning the Capitol Square To the Editors of the Dispatch,-A number of new benches have recently been put finished it will add greatly to this portion of along the main avenues in the Capitol Square, the city. The building is eighty-three feet and there are now a hundred or two comin length and thirty-five feet in breadth, with fortable seats in this beautiful park. The sixteen doors-eight in front and eight in Square is resorted to every afternoon by hundreds of ladies and gentlemen and children, with a misdemeanor-viz., receiving a sum will be one of the most pleasant places for and there is only one thing lacking now to make the place perfectly comfortable. I respectfully suggest that one of the city sprinkers be carried up to the Square every aftercursion via Richmond, York River and noon and the avenues sprinkled sufficiently Chesapeake railroad and steamboat from to lay the dust. In the afternoon there is out the dust (which is generally blown in Unmailable Letters Remaining in the place would be delightful. The wateringcarts can accomplish this much desired end. The cost will be trifling. A SUFFERER.
